

RUGBY LEAGUE 1993-94

CLUBS MOVING: LONDON CRUSADERS (from Crystal Palace Sports Centre) [June 1993]

Ground; Barnet Copthall Stadium, Greenlands Lane, Hendon, London NW4 1RL

(Used by Shaftesbury Barnet Harriers Athletic Club - now home to Saracens Rugby Union Club.)

SOME EVENTS OF THE SEASON

A new National Conference League is formed for the leading amateur sides, the Premier Division teams are

From Third Division: Chorley Borough, Blackpool Gladiators and Nottingham City

From Rugby League 'A' team Alliance: Hemel Hempstead Stags

From BARLA National League Division 1: Dudley Hill (Bradford), West Hull, Leigh Miners Welfare, Wigan St Patrick's, Woolston Rovers (Warrington), Egremont Rangers (Whitehaven), Saddleworth Rangers (Oldham) and Askam (Barrow)

The Challenge Cup is reformatted, with sixty-four amateur teams entered into the first round. The thirty-two National Conference sides have home advantage, and in the second round teams are drawn at random. In the third round the sixteen Second Division clubs came in – with home advantage over the remaining amateur sides. And in the fourth round the Championship clubs enter with a random draw.

The Regal Trophy is also reformatted, with a First round of sixteen Second Division clubs plus two from France and the three ex pro clubs and ten amateur sides. The Second Division clubs get home advantage though. The Second round is a random draw.

And yet again The Sydney Sevens Competition is causing trouble this year too. After last years cock-up the Rugby Football League sends a Great Britain side to compete. They promised only to select two players from each club – but it didn't stop Paul Newlove, Shaun Edwards and Martin Offiah from withdrawing, they all faced a charge of bringing the game into disrepute.

In the end the charge was dropped, Edwards said he was injured, Offiah had insurance problems and Newlove said he was retiring from International duty as he was moving house and hated flying.

Paul Newlove then faced a lesser charge of misconduct - withdrawn when he withdrew his retirement threat and went to the test match in France.

Leigh are offered another twelve month stay at their Hilton Park ground, but Bramley are in serious danger of extinction as Leeds Corporation refuse planning permission of selling Mc Laren Field off for housing – but they've announced they are leaving to groundshare next season with Northern Premier League football side Farsley Celtic, just up the road at Stanningley, (although they never actually did as the RFL said the ground wasn't good enough). They managed to stay at McLaren Field another season.

Huddersfield are also in trouble, the Leeds Road club goes bust – with the receiver sacking the manager Alex Murphy, and all the back-room staff,. The entire British players put up for sale for what they can get.

Leeds are fined twice for putting out a virtual 'A' team side in a match away at St Helens in which they were gubbed 68 – 0, then the week before the Wembley final they did it again at home to Bradford Northern, gubbed this time 10 – 52.

The Loiner's excuse was that the players were injured or had played too much. The RFL didn't go for it and fined them £8,000 for the Saints match, and £12,000 for the Northern one.

Wigan sign the All Black Rugby Union winger Va'aiga Tuigamala – for a reported fee of £350,000 for a four year contract. His first home match puts 3,000 on the gate at Central Park.

Pie - eater fans are shocked by the sacking by the Wigan board of their coach John Dorahy, just as he completed the league and cup double. Dorahy was told it was for, 'gross misconduct', the club said, 'unhappy differences'.

It seems the matter came to a head over the Wigan Chairman Jack Robinson not mentioning Dorahy in his post Wembley speech. Also the Board appointed his Assistant Coach Dean Bell without even mentioning it to Dorahy.

Later a statement was issued saying the spat had been 'amicably and honourably' settled

Woolston Rovers, a Warrington based amateur side – and the first champions of The National Conference League apply for membership of the Second Division, to replace bottom side Highfield. It's refused by the RFL though
